

Someone To Say Hi To

Sarah Bettens

Look at you how well you've done so far Look at where you're standing who you are

And all our moments good and bad forever in my head wish we could go back just once and laugh at things we said it's been wonderful and crazy knowing you

and I hope that I can always see the teenage girl in you and I know that you'll be fine but I'll be there everytime you need someone to say hi to
late at night

Remember how I told you I was scared You end up with some jerk who doesn't even know you're there but deep down I just knew that you would find someone who's real who doesn't claim to know exactly everything you feel

and I hope that I can always see
and I know that you'll be fine
late at night

Sometimes when I think of us I'm sad I miss not knowing anything of what could lie ahead but mostly now I'm grateful that you're are where you want to be not quite here and not quite there but somewhere in between

and I hope that I can always see
and I know that you'll be fine
you need someone to complain to
late at night
