

Better Man

Sarah Connor

Once upon a time you were in your prime well you act so cool and
d looked so fine well didn't ya.
Looking back at you and the things you do staying oh so true sa ying I loved you I loved ya.

Remember the night when you held me tight I said its love you s aid alright yeah baby.
The very next day you changed your mind you can be so cruel and
so unkind yeah baby.

I'm gonna find a better man, the kinda man who takes me by the hand and understands, how I feel.
Here's the deal. I'm gonna take my love to the hands to the hea rt off a better man.

Your talk was fast and you talk was flash never drove your car
or spend your cash no baby.
And I weren't impressed by the way you dress and I must confess that I'm fine with less now baby.

When I first met you I'd die for you I was so naive but I still believed you baby.
Its a jagged edge she was in your bed now I'm seeing red for th e lies you fed me baby.

I'm gonna find a better man... (2x)
