

My Intuition

Sarah Connor

I'm in the club with my girlies
Just hangin' loose
I see you comin' up early
lookin' so cute
We started to rock on the dancefloor
To get it on
But when it comes to a bit more
All your charm's gone

My intuition
Keeps me from wishin'
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition
Tells me
"Don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time

Self-confidence is remaining
I must be wrong
You say the best entertaining
Is when you're gone
You say you'd love me forever
It's plain to see
But I believe you can never Satisfy me

My intuition
Keeps me from wishin'
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition
Tells me
"Don't miss him
Love would be a waste of time

I can't give you
What you want and
This rejection's
Your protection

I know, I know, I know, I know, you want, you want,
You want a baby, I know, I know,
I know, I know, you want, you want, you want me

My intuition
Keeps me from wishin'
You could be Mr. Right
My intuition
Tells me
"Don't miss him
Love would be waste of time
