

Ohhh (Private Party)

Sarah Connor

Don't miss this invitation boy

I'm touching on my body
I'm thinking 'bout you beside me
I can't wait for you to get here tonight

Boy I'm so excited
I really hope you don't mind that I started without you
But I got tired
Of waiting for you cause I called you 'bout an hour ago

What else can I do
So I went ahead and started the show
Boy, hurry up and come home

Oh
I wanna get it started
Oh
You and me private party
Oh
Boy you're about to miss this invitation
To amuse yourself up in my park
Come and start
Oh
Get it started
Oh
My private party
Oh
Don't miss this invitation, boy
Because this is where this party's just about to start

I'm here anticipating
The changes that we'll be making
So I got the mirror facing the bed
Exploring all my regions
While all the time I keep thinking
That I'd rather have you with me instead

I'm waiting for you, boy
It's been about an hour ago
What's taking you so long?
What else can I do
So I went ahead and started the show
Hurry baby
Come home

Oh
I wanna get it started
Oh
You and me private party
Oh
Boy you're about to miss this invitation
To amuse yourself up in my park
Come and start
Oh
Oh

My private party
Oh
