

Can't Touch Us

Saukrates

My time to shine, now. I got the floor now

(Okay, alright. Go man)

Let me take control. A lot of niggas, a lot of niggas out here don't believe that, you know, that what I say is worth you know, I guess my weight in gold.

(I hear you, I hear you. Nah, hell no man, they can't do that man)

Even though I am who I am and I stay where I stay. you know it don't make one motherfucking difference, 'cause I'mma bring it to ya the same way another niggas gonna bring it to ya. I'm just as hungry as you. Even though, you know what, say it after me, even though I am who I am.

(Even though I am what I am)

I am (I am)

Somebody (Somebody)

You know what I'm saying, and that somebody gonna put a brick in ya ass. Just check it out.

Don't believe for a second, a man running ain't

A man gunning for you, true, indeed

Love is worth more than gold, but favors equally sold

To counterparts and enemies, ya feel me?

Non-believers try another theory

But when you fail it's apparent that you didn't hear me, HA

You feel me? Take a second, fk a first impression

We all realize longevity's a dangerous weapon

Wait a minute, are we forgetting we are MCs

Putting two to your cranium, often temps me

I'mma let it go, why? (can't touch us, can't touch us)

It don't get much straighter than this (can't touch us, can't touch us)

Love got me positive (can't touch us, can't touch us)

Ya motherfucking right son (can't touch us, can't touch us)

Black man, black woman coming together

For love, life, uhh, pleasure

Guess again, when it's back to community chest again

Government cheese, starting to taste fresh again

Ain't it, nah for real ain't it, who cares if this shit's tainted

We die every second and got more where that came from

Right? Wrong, I ain't preaching

Just releasing information non-believers dare to use

Now this love become fair to you

What? Your screw face got me thinking I ain't clear to you

Let me guess, you must have question

First and foremost, who the fk this nigga think he testing

Follow me now, this situation going down

I don't care, you will respect my name through love or fair

Niggas call me voice of reason, touch me, trust me

If I had a nickel for everytime I be lucky

If I didn't jump a tax bracket

Bullet proof jackets don't come with warranty covering heat I practice

Ya feel me? In particular I shine at the rhyme

Saukrates is the name, one more time if you forgot

I'mma let it go, why? (can't touch us, can't touch us)

It don't get much straighter than this (can't touch us, can't touch us)

'Cause love got me positive (can't touch us, can't touch us)

This idealistic speech go yo all on crutches

I am the new ambassador for rap lords

If I'm speaking out of turn, it's what you asked for

Question from me to you, what would you rap for?
If you prefer the fast life running from task force
Hmm, think about, but never doubt it
I am a role model living with it never without it
My mental never getting clouded
But I admit in the beginning it was crowded
Huh, so now I spit in the ears of those who listen
Catholic, Jewish, Muslim and Christian
An Atheist combine my system
Voltron with the izm coming with one wisdom
To never attack, react to those who pissed them
OFF, do what you ought but realize the cost
'Cause time is money, people and we are running short
I'm attempted to abort procedure
But if I leave, the minority picket be "Sauk's we need ya"
Black man to forbidden diva
I'm transmitting on your AM/FM and shortwave receiver
Try to tune out, even the negative cool out
Eviction notice on the door of ignorance, MOVE OUT!
Before I let it go son (can't touch us, can't touch us)
It don't get much straighter than this (can't touch us, can't touch us)
'Cause love got me positive (can't touch us, can't touch us)
Image is nothing when I come busting
Love may become fear, why? (alright, alright, alright)
Because I am (I am)
Somebody (somebody)
(better get your motherfucking, better get your head right man)
CIRCLE (ZOO!)
(Better look in the mirror baby and tell me what the ugly thing you see back there baby)
Capitol Hill
(Tell me what you see in the mirror. A sorry ass, pussy ass motherfucker)
