

Hold On

Sean Paul

Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh, we already won, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream

It is done I'll see you there
I know you're well prepared
Put aside all your plans
God will answer all your prayers
Might seem that no one cares,
Been working hard for years
Keep climbing up the stairs
Gotta know that you already there
Blood, sweat and the tears now
None of them can take the shares now
Enemies better be aware now,
Champion's got a lot to bare now
I'ma tell it as I'ma swear...
I got the... I got the stairs
Carry in until we see the sun,
We holding on

Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh, we already won, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream

Although the road is long we still hold on
We carry on, we still stay strong
Today is long but tomorrow will come
Hold on, hold on now, now
Cah the brokens now will be the strongest
All do you know is that the road is deep
Pain and trouble, trial and grief
What a man sow cah you one must reap
Hard times will never get you beat
And you never will get defeat
Cah my all arm strong... concrete...to do work
Because talk is cheap

Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh, we already won, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream

I know the road is long we still hold on
We carry on, we still stay strong
Today is long but tomorrow will come
Oho, oho, oho, oho, oho, oho

Hold on to the dream, hold on
Hold on now, now
Hold on and believe
Oh, we already won, we still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
We still hold on
Hold on, hold on now, now
Hold on to the dream
