

I'm Not Worth The Hurt

Sheena Easton

Why does your heart have to beat for me, make you want what can never be
Why can't your eyes open up and see
It's just not me that you need in your life

So go find someone else to love tonight Someone who won't leave the way I will Makin' love don't always make it right
I'm not worth the hurt you're gonna feel
I'm not worth the hurt you're gonna feel
So sad, and so unfair, to want someone who doesn't really care
You search for feelings, but they just aren't there
Anywhere, so don't let me hurt you baby

I'm not worth it, baby

I'm not worth the hurt, I'm not worth the hurt
