

Nobody's Perfect

Sheryl Crow

Stickers on a suitcase tell me where you've been
Could this be the one place you don't leave again
All the best intentions lead you down my path
Of wishing you could take your lame excuses back

Nobody's perfect, how could anyone be?
Nobody's perfect, especially me
I've been around enough to know
Sometimes it's hard to see
Nobody's perfect

There are no mistakes in life, that's what I find
If they want to tear us down, they can get in line
Proving something to them is way beyond my reach
At least if we screw up, we do it honestly

Nobody's perfect, how could anyone be?
Nobody's perfect, especially me
Sorry goes a long long way
But sometimes it's hard to say
Nobody's perfect

Proving something to the world is way beyond my reach
At least if we screw up we do it honestly

Nobody's perfect, how could anyone be?
Nobody's perfect, especially me
I'm sorry goes a long long way
Sometimes it's hard to say
Nobody's perfect
