

You are an angel
I am the aftermath
You paint a picture some feels
Dreaming your laugh away

Let me out
Water rising all around
Laying with my head down in the past
You know that I don't stand a chance

Come on Atlantis
It makes me sad to think of home
Sing me that song once more before
We all die alone
And lonely, lonely, lonely

Let me out
Water rising all around
We barely know what afternoon has passed
You know that I don't stand a chance
