

Definition Of Me

Steven Curtis Chapman

Here come those words again
I run for cover, I'm dodging them.
But still they seem to find their way around my best defense Here come those little thoughts of all I ought to be but I'm not I try talking to myself but I'm still not convinced I'm good, I'm bad, I'm everything in between oh I'm this, I'm that, but really God we both know

It is Your love that defines me and Your love that reminds me
it's not what I do
This life I live, You have given
and in You I am hidden
This is what I know is true that the definition of me is You

This ladder never ends
I climb up then we slide down again Still they say you've not arrived until you reach the top But Your kingdom's upside down it is the servant who wears the crown First is last and last is first and You're all that I'm not 'Cause I'm weak, You're strong, I'm empty 'til You fill me I sing this song to keep myself remembering

It is Your love that defines me
and Your love that reminds me
it's not what I do
This life I live, You have given
and in You I am hidden
that the definition of me is You

I have been made by You I have been saved by You
All that I am is all because of You I'm weak, You're strong, I'm empty but You fill me I'm singing this song to keep myself remembering

It is Your love that defines
and Your love that reminds me
it's not what I do
This life I live You have given
and in You, I am hidden
that the definition of me is You
