

Digital (Did You Tell)

Stone Sour

Oh save us all again
From a cynic's Armageddon
When your mind didn't want to break,
Your rusty mouth consented
I think you're all afraid
Too afraid to admit pollution
Now there's no easy way
To avoid such a hard solution

Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?

Here we go again
With a brilliant overreaction
My advice isn't gonna change,
Dysfunction over fashion
I think you're all ashamed,
Too ashamed to admit your faults
No daylight in the bunker,
Just darkness in the vaults

Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
There's only one way out of this
But do we have the nerve to try?
'cause there is no way out of this
If all our answers say goodbye

Goodbye
There's only one way out of this
But do we have the nerve to try?
'cause there is no way out of this
If all our answers say goodbye

Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
Digital
Did you tell the world today that
We would say goodbye?
