

Fly Away

Sturm und Drang

Looking over a million parts of my once called life
Shattered in infinity, cut out by own knife

The rain is coming,
stormclouds are gathering above
I know it's time for me to go

(Chorus)

I fly away I am leaving this kingdom of lies Through the storm, passing hell all for my kingdom come
All for a life one day

If only I could take you with me, but the past holds you enslaved
I have to let go of it or it will tear me apart

The rain is coming,
stormclouds are gathering above

(Chorus)

(Solo)

(Chorus)
