

Breath

Swollen Members

I'm alive,
I can feel the blood
Rushing through my veins
An that's all I need to know,
'cause I'm not looking for a change.
'cause I got friends and enemies,
But it just don't bother me,
'cause as long as I believe,
I can breath!

Metamorphose, battle axe fortress,
Four-hundred horsepower
Full moon the sorceress
Swollen members an my girl, NF
The predators an the terminator
The tribes cold breath
Why we hurt 'em later
We can do so much damage now,
They'll truck 'em
When I hit 'em
So much garbage around
Yells, bells, and whistles
Like carnival sounds.
Phenomenal adrenaline
From the words of my mouth.

How did shayne manage
To rap?
With brain damage im phat
Remain famished and stacked
Your playing with the
Praying mantis,
Infact you gigantic,
You sink like titanic
Panic attack act up
An I'm a mack truck
Crash into disaster
Smash like master-plaster,
Punker,
Rangle-monster wants
To stomp you
Crushing 'cause I'm ?
Crushing that remains
Will tomorrow be the same
Blood rushing through my veins?

A noices people I knew had to, that's
We are of this point to do what I did of
So spoint to to weither it be easy enough to do

I'm sharing a mouth
I'm like a crispy creme
Prevayer belt.
With the sync notes
Swollen like your lymphnodes,
We went from instro to intro to
Insto,

Coincidentally
Messing up your mental state,
We making ends glow
Pacific center ?
Me an my kinfolk attention
Nobody can do it like your man mok'
My bands dope!
The tracks all flow
I'm beautiful
that's for sure!

The harmony queen,
The decibal kings,
Inevitable, we were born to do incredible things,
I let it ? like freedom
Swing letters from my jaw
Twenty six in the mix
An we do it better than you all

I'm a Neanderthal,
Your bound to fall,
I'm wonderful
We warned ya all
Its foreign to y'all
Its wonderful the underworld
Beautiful minds,
Trying to keep it independent
In recruitable times.

We crashing through you,
Now feel the magnitude
Were flashing through
Inside of you
It has to do with how
You do your thing
Be true to only you
Well moka only
Telling you
Is take your soul an Talent to
The next plateau
An balance
Who you try to think of times two

[Chorus]
