

Honey Don't Leave L.A.

James Taylor

That limousine
In which you made the scene
Suits you to a t
If all the you want to be
Is somebody that don't never walk

That big chateau
Where you wanna go
In the south of France
Gonna end our big romance
Don't you do it

Honey don't leave L.A.
That Riviera is so far away
Begging you s'il vous plait
They don't know nothing down in St. Tropez
Baby don't leave L.A.

I heard it said that you had it made
With you movie star
But, oh, how right you are
If that's really 'bout the best you can do
You moved my soul
So I played the role
Of your back door man
Yes and now I can't really complain
'cause I love you

Honey don't leave L.A.
That Riviera is so far away
Begging you s'il vous plait
They don't know nothing down in St. Tropez
Baby don't leave L.A.
