

Better Off Alone

Teddy Geiger

I think it's gonna be a hot day
But it's cold in my head
As I take my first steps to the door from your bed
Still I'm going over every word that you said
Now, it's starting to faze me

I'm hoping now to untangle the thread
Cause every touch is tied up in a mythical web
Well, oh, well I just wanna go home

I got fame with a sip of rain
I look up and think about how outside I'm guilty
Well, I try and crawl somewhere safe

The morning resolution
The morning's just another sad goodbye
Each time I try, I end it
I'm just the kid who's better off alone
I'm better off alone

So quick, quick take a look at yourself
If they say I felt stock, confiscated the shelf
And see why they're standing over here

You look fine, I haven't slept in days
Bags under my eyes but I can't accept blame
That's all you say

The morning resolution
The morning's just another sad goodbye
Each time I try, I end it
I'm just the kid who's better off alone
I'm better off alone

I'm just the kid who's better off alone
Oh, you say I'm scared, you're probably right
I'm the kid who's better off alone
Better off alone

Better off
Better off
Better off alone

The morning resolution
The morning's just another sad goodbye
Each time I try, I end it
I'm just the kid who's better off alone
Oh, you say I'm scared, you're right
