

Absolution

Telecast

Your holiness brings the friendship I need
Loneliness fades as I feel Your glory
Like morning break around me

And as I decrease I find you're released
The rush of your love, like the rush of your blood
Lord it sustains me, it sustains me

Wanna tell you, tell you I love you
My friend

"Awake from your slumber, my dear friend" You say
Araise and follow, for I'm the way
In Me is your absolution

I've been undone by Your holy touch
Consumed by the fire of Your holy love
Lord, it sustains me, it sustains me

Wanna tell you (to tell you)
Tell you I love you (I love You)
Just to know you (to know you)
My sweetest friend (sweetest friend)
My friend

Wanna tell you (to tell you)
Tell you I love you (I love You)
Just to know you (to know you)
My sweetest friend (sweetest friend)
My friend

Wanna tell you
Tell you I love you
Just to know you
My sweetest friend
My friend
