Too late to turn away you dragged me into your underworld I think you've got your reasons
To carry a gun with you

Would you give a minute in heaven for a lifetime in hell What's your price for eternity girl I know you've got a soul to sell

I think you've got your reasons To carry a gun with you (if you ain't got better to do)

Don't you try to baby put me down get around (2x)
