

Lips of Blood

The 69 Eyes

Dream, dream, dream my child
Dream of passion becomes alive
In a dream I saw you smile
In a dream worthwhile
In this dream we cannot hide
In this dream alongside
Dream, dream, dream my child
Dream of passion becomes divine

Diana

I just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips

Dream, dream, dream my child
Dream of shadows become alive
In a dream I followed your kind
In a dream dark side
In this dream we can be found
In this dream blood bound
Dream, dream, dream my child
Dream of shadows become all mine

Diana

I just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips
I just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips

I just can't run away
Dream, dream, dream my child
I just can't run away
Dream, dream, dream my child
I just can't run away
Dream, dream, dream my child
I just can't run away

I just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips
I just can't run away
It's just like a kiss away
From your lips of blood
From your lips

From your lips
From your lips
