

Put Yourself in My Hands

The Adicts

There is nothing to be scared of
In my trap
Frightened of Love
Don't try to fight me
You might even like me

Sends a shiver down your spine
Told you that you would be mine
Hush baby now don't you cry
Oh don't you wanna die

Put yourself in my hands
I'll hold you tenderly
Put yourself in my hands
You'll be safe with me (2x)

Sometimes it's hard to bare
You can only stop and stare
When your life unfolds
And your soul is sold

If you should walk the world alone
You would never find a home
Come on take my hand
There is no promise land

Put yourself in my hands
I'll hold you tenderly
Put yourself in my hands
You'll be safe with me (4x)

Put yourself in my hands
I wanna take you in my arms
Put yourself in my hands
I wanna show you what I got

Put yourself in my hands
I wanna show you all I got
Put yourself in my hands
I promise you a lot

Put yourself in my hands
Oh yea my little angel
Put yourself in my hands
Oh Yea.....
