She's a Rocker

The Adicts

If you go down to that basement Where the rhythm creeps You may see a girl Bopping to the beat Swings her hips And swings her hair Sparkle in her eye Somewhere in the darkness She gets high She's a rocker And she likes to rock-n-roll Tenderly she holds you In her soft embrace All she wants All she says Is dig that dig that bass If you go down to that basement Where the lights are low You know she'll be there Stealing the show Like a fire burning She's hot she's hot Don't you hold back, baby Give it what you got
