

I for You

The All-american Rejects

Say the words I can not say
Say them on another day
Fragile words like these will cut your tongue

Was I good enough, was I bad enough
When I wanted more, yeah, you had enough
But nobody's gonna try for you
Nobody's gonna do like I for you

And every slow-lit cigarette
That nervous hands can barely get
The courage I could always feel your eyes

And those dresses you made look like gowns
You're a sinner but the devil even turned you down
'Cause nobody's gonna try for you
Nobody's gonna do like I for you

And nobody's gonna try for you
And nobody's gonna love you
Nobody's gonna do like I for you

Hold me like you never could
I'll hold you like I said I would
Air or light won't breathe nor shine between

With your feather lips, yeah, you fly away
Well I hope they come back down someday
'Cause nobody's gonna try for you
Nobody's gonna do like I for you

Somebody's getting by for you
I don't bend I just break in two
Somebody like me
I'd die for you
