

Benefits Of Lying

The Apples In Stereo

Everything i saw falls away
Like the fate on the radio song
And everything i try pass me by
Like the tide seems to rise then it's gone
Still there's something to said for company in bed
This time i want it, see i knew we'd agree
How can anyone deny the benefits of lying with your friends
We'll try it again
Sometimes when i'm by myself i can't find myself
And there's no one there.
Sometimes i can see myself, i can be myself
With a friend now everyday i ride of my eyes
Then my mind fills with complications
And everywhere i go pass by slow
Fading moments and aspirations
Still there's something to said for company in bed
This time i want, see i knew we'd agree
How can anyone deny the benefits of lying with your friends
We'll try it again.
Sometimes when i'm by myself i can't find myself
And there's no one there
Sometimes i can be myself, i can see myself, with a friend
Now, a friend (no)
I'll never know you like you know yourself
You'll never know me like i know myself
I'll never know you like you know yourself
You'll never know me like i know myself
I'll never know you like you know yourself
You'll never know me like i know myself
