Don't Blame It On Me

The Association

Go blame the rain for your cloudburst of teardrops
Blame the wind, say how lonely and cold it can be
You asked to be free
Don't blame it on me

Go blame the night for the darkness descending
Blame the wind, say it laughs at you now that you're free
That's how you want it to be
Don't blame it on me

Now your life is empty
And only tears remain
Your high hopes turned to heartaches
Your freedom turned to chains

Go blame rain and the wind and the darkness
Blame the world for the way things have turned out to be
Blame whatever you please

But don't...
Don't blame it on me
Don't blame it on me
