

He's All You Want

The Audition

I watch the sunlight flicker through the blinds
It casts a shadow on a bed we made of lies
You seemed so sure, but surely you should realize
I didn't even blink an eye
The night your heart had died

I've been thinking a lot today, yeah
Been thinking a lot today, yeah

You say because you're lonely
That you're wrong
And never, ever think of me
'Cause you're done
You say because you're lonely
But so what?
And never, ever think of me
'Cause he is all you want
He's all you want

You never said
That you thought I held these lies
It casts a shadow
On both you and I

Don't even try to make this better
I wanted to keep you longer
It's all the same
The lies, the game
I know that you won't change

I've been thinking a lot today, yeah
Been thinking a lot today, yeah

You say because you're lonely
That you're wrong
And never, ever think of me
'Cause you're done
You say because you're lonely
But so what?
And never, ever think of me
'Cause he is all you want

I don't wanna wait for you
I can't take it
I don't wanna wait for you
I can't take it

I've been thinking a lot today
I've been thinking a lot today

You say because you're lonely
That you're wrong
And never, ever think of me
'Cause you're done
You say because you're lonely
But so what?
And never, ever think of me

'Cause he is all you want
