

Run Away

The Audition

You like to drive me crazy
Admit it, baby
Don't you lie
You swore up and down
This time around you'll learn to compromise

And I never thought you'd lie right through your eyes
Through your eyes
And just

Run away from everything
It's all you've ever known about yourself
You just run away
Making the same mistakes
It's hard to love when I've been stuck in hell
And that's all I'll ever know about myself
About myself

It's so hard to be away from
The one you love
Or so you thought
You dealt us a deck of cards
Straight to my heart
And you folded a royal flush

And I would have done anything for us
Oh, for us
But you just

Run away from everything
It's all you've ever known about yourself
You just run away
Making the same mistakes
It's hard to love when I've been stuck in hell
And that's all I'll ever know about myself

You took a knife to the thick of the problem
You pushed it in and turned
Trying to solve them
This scar you left
Is a constant reminder
Just how good that we should have been
Had you shown me love
Please show me love

You run away from
From everything
It's all you've ever known about yourself
You just run away
Making the same mistakes
It's hard to love when I've been stuck in hell
And that's all I'll ever know about myself
That's all I'll ever know about myself
