

Stand On Your Feet

The Audition

This scent you left oh, in my bed
Is helping me forget everything you said
Ask yourself what's left when your heart goes dead
'Cause my love has fled without sentiment

Stand on your feet now
Your willingness to be ignorant is what's wearing me down
I detached my heart from you long ago

I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you, not for you
I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you, fall for you

You've been exposed and I hope you know
What we had was gold, now tarnished and old
Reap what you sow, and this case is closed
You can walk alone, 'Cause I felt that way so long ago

Stand on your feet now
Your willingness to be ignorant is what's wearing me down
I detached my heart from you long ago

I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you, not for you
I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you, fall for you

Stand on your feet now
Your willingness to be ignorant is what's wearing me down
I detached my heart

I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you

I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me i'm no saint, you'll see
But if I do, I bet I'll never fall for you
I don't ever wanna fall in love again
Don't wait for me I'm no saint, you'll see
I don't ever wanna fall in love again
