

What Gets You Through The Night

The Audition

Tried to find both my life and my love
Took the time to write down all my thoughts
Found that I need to let go of these (Let go oh let go)
All of my worthless insecurities

'Cause I've got the tendency
Of dancing away at anything alarming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now
Just turn around
I'll make you break through
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shredded but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now

Wonder why, why it's taking so long
To step back and admit all my wrongs
Always gave everything you had to me (Everything to me)
Tell me why I continue abusing

My insecurities have taken away
What I consider charming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now
Just turn around
I'll make you break through
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shredded but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now

Whoa, I'll never tell you why I do those things I do
Whoa, Oh please just show me some understanding, baby
Whoa, Just trust my soul that I, I'm trying, God I'm trying Oh, To let you know that I, I've tried to tell you that...

My insecurities have taken away
What I consider charming
And so...

Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now
Just turn around
I'll make you break through
Never betray you
And now I know that I
Can't go back on all those promises I shredded but
Can you, will you
At least attempt to stay now
