

Baby

The Bird and the Bee

You broke some bones when we were young
I can remember how you moaned
So I carried you home like a baby

You were thirteen and I was twelve
I can remember how it felt
Wearing your broken body on like a lady

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you need me
Just call me, I'll carry you home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you're broken
No reason to do it alone

We were both five, you started a fire
And for a moment, all was lost
But then the rain fell from the sky
It was magic

Couldn't believe how it came down
Puddles of water all around
But when the clouds were finally gone
It seemed tragic

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you need me
Just call me, I'll carry you home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you're broken
No reason to do it alone

Baby, I know we've seen our share
Of hard times, you and me
But I want you to know that I will always
No matter what, come to you

Out of the mist or into the fire
Across the sea, the mountains, the desert
And if you need me, just call me
And I will carry you all the way home

Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you need me
Just call me, I'll carry you home
Baby, baby, baby, baby, baby
If ever you're broken
No reason to do it alone
