

Single Successful Guy

The Bouncing Souls

I'm beating down doors
Stumbling down the street
Dialing the telephone
Up all night, up all morning
Right here is my home
But I know I don't even have to try
I'm a single successful guy

Lonely with my friends
And lonely with my favorite girl
Lonely when I'm all alone if you're gonna talk I gotta listen
Because right here is my home
It's easy I don't have to try
I'm a single successful guy

My ears are ringing loud
But I can't hear a sound

I'm carrying all I own and my heart is heavy in my chest
Right here is my home
It's easy, I don't have to try
I'm a single successful guy
Single successful guy (2x)
