

Pull Yourself Together

The Boxer Rebellion

I, I see turn you learn to take, you love to take don't cancel out, don't stop, don't wait Pull yourself together
take everything you need open up to open arms and I'm to disagree pull yourself together, pull yourself together for me

Everyone, everyone is waiting for you, waiting for you from the other end, to the end you run to so pull yourself together
take everything you need
pull yourself together, pull yourself together for me

So pull yourself together, pull yourself together
take everything you need
pull yourself together, pull yourself together for me.
