Staring up into the solar system, All the stars are fixed up in the sky. I just want to sparkle for a moment Before I just fizzle out and die.

I'm happy because I'm stupid.
Scared of spiders, scared of flying.
If I wasn't so happy,
I wouldn't be so scared of dying.

So just be gentle with me
(I'm not as young as I was)
And I'll be gentle with you
I'm not as brave as I thought
'Cause my heart gets broken so easily.
So just be gentle, be gentle with me.

Wide awake, waiting like a target Listening for things I cannot see. Insects flutter up against my window. I don't like the way they look at me i guess I've always needed To be needed by someone. It's a comforting feeling Being under someone's thumb.

So just be gentle with me

(And if I am ever mean)

And I'll be gentle with you

I never mean to be mean

'Cause I want to pick peaches off of a cherry tree.

Just be gentle, be gentle, be gentle,

Be gentle with me.

So just be gentle with me
Trouble is sometimes
And I'll be gentle with you
I just can't switch myself off
When I want to so I never do
Because I'm mental, be gentle, be gentle,
Just be gentle, be gentle
And I'll be gentle, be gentle, be gentle, be gentle with you.
