Save Yourself

The Chainsmokers

I should have known what I started
You should know where your heart is
But I don't, I won't be a part of Expectations when I grow up

So call it what you call it
But I just won't be afraid of myself
'Cause I know what I got it
I won't give it up just to save myself

One, two, three!
One, two, three!

I hit it 'till it's hollow
It's your pride you should swallow
But I won't, I'm not one to follow
I won't explain all the things I love

So call it what you call it
I'll be the first one to blame myself
'Cause I know I get caught up
I won't give it up just to save myself

One, two, three!
