

Relief

The Crimson Armada

God what am I?
Sometimes I turn from you
When you desire my heart so greatly.
How can I let that happen so often?
At times I am so disgusted to know
What my heart is capable of conjuring
I am relieved
I am relieved to know that
I am absolutely nothing without you
God I am nothing without your love
I am relieved to know that
Your love encompasses my every emotion
And I am relieved that I am only what you would have me be
