

Life Changes

The Cross

(Clayton Moss, Peter Noone and Josh Macrae)

Yeah
Here come the sharpshooters
And teenage looters today
Gotta pistol in their pocket
Gonna blow all your dreams away

They rip through your life
Like a hurricane blowing
Time is the healer alone
And you know it

Here comes the dream weaver
You better believe her today

Life changes around
Don't ask me why I don't know
Love can always be found
Don't ask me why that's how it is
That's how it is

Here come the abusers
To tempt you and lead you astray
In this outlaw ghetto
Your soul is the price that you pay

But out of the darkness
There'll soon come a light
To take you and lead you
Through this endless night

She'll love you and hold you
To keep you from slipping away

Life changes around
Don't ask me why I don't know
Love can always be found
Don't ask me why that's how it is
That's how it is

And I believe in my love for you
How does it feel
Would you feel

Life changes around
Don't ask me how I know that
Love can always be found
Don't ask me why that's how it is

Life it changes around
Don't ask me why I know not
Love can always be found
Don't ask me why that's how it is

Life changes around
Life changes around

Love can always be found
Life changes around
Life changes
Changes around
Life changes around
Changes - life changes around
