

Huey Dewey And Louie Louie

The dB's

Louie Louie Louie Louie Louie
That's all I ever hear
I play all week in a band across the street
That's why I'm drinking here
But fancy meeting you here drinking in a hotel bar
Louie Louie Louie Louie Louie
That's all I ever hear

We play 40s 50s 60s
But the clubs don't like to pay
We try to get work at conventions and parties
But we really just like to play
But for you it must be different
Do you own your own P.A.?
Louie Louie Louie Louie Louie
That's all I ever play

(Bring it down, bring it way way down)
I must have played "Brown Sugar" by the Rolling Stones
About ten million times
And I probably played it again tonight
But it kinda slips my mind
But fancy meeting you here drinking in a hotel bar
Louie Louie Louie Louie Louie
That's all I ever hear
Louie Louie Louie Louie Louie
That's all I ever hear
That's all
