

She was stuck in pictures
While he passed time in film
Oh silly fame, why do you play?
Frame by frame, day by day

With reels changing over
And dropping to the sides
Oh, solemn soul see where you are
And look to the sides what you discard

Press your lips to mine, breathe in deep and lie
When the cameras roll, hide away your soul
Flash your eyes, forge a smile, entertain
But don't get stuck in something you hate

Bring me the eyes of the earth
Cut off the tongue of the world
Keep the ends close in sight to the means that imply
You're not living the life that you're worth

Pressing your lips to mine, breathe in deep and lie
When the cameras roll, hide away your soul
Flashing your eyes to sell, lying to yourself
Dodging truth from the start, hide away your heart

Turn around forge a smile entertain
But don't get stuck in something painful
Something worse than nothing

We could have been smart
With the plot from the start
Mistakes from the spark
We knew it wasn't love

Breathe in deep and lie
When the cameras roll
Hide away your soul
Flash your eyes, forge a smile, entertain
