Ignorance Is Bliss

The Divine Comedy

I rely upon your charity to survive I deny myself to prove that I'm alive I plead guilty if sweet innocence is this I support the motion "Ignorance Is Bliss"

Kill me with your kiss It's "Whoops Apocalypse!" Ignorance must be bliss

You rely upon my charity to survive I deny myself to keep this love alive You walk headlong off the edge of the abyss I oppose the motion "Ignorance Is Bliss"

We rely upon our charity to survive We deny ourselves the luxury of life We could go on fighting till there's nothing left I propose the notion "Ignorance Is Bliss"
