

Not For Second Prize

The Dream Academy

time itself is bringing down our ride we're on the ground
we've almost made it
hard to find a way
to say goodbye
and yet the final kiss betrayed it in the shadow of the world outside don't let it darken down your eyes you never could have
second prize

out into the world
on shaking ground
and leaving all the lights behind us from my arms
where no warmth could be found just the love that had confined us in the shadow of the things you know don't ever think of letting go no, not for

time is up &
bringing down our ride
we're almost down
the music's ending
