The Early November

Clever is a general word
While always showing that she's hurt
But never wrong, but never wrong
It takes a lot to make the end
It takes a lot of smart thinking
But never wrong, but never wrong

And she shows off her skill
Right as she takes it all
Out of her hat
You make sure that it's real,
And it's all you thought you had
And now you're scared
And now you're scared

Clever is a general word
While always showing that she's hurt
But never wrong, but never wrong
It takes a lot to make the end
It takes a lot of smart thinking
But never wrong, but never wrong

Clever, clever is all
But you're never wrong
Clever, clever is all
But you're never wrong

All I can see
Is the smiles
Fall asleep

And now I'm scared
And now I'm scared
And now I'm scared

Clever is a general word
While always showing that she's hurt
But never wrong, but never wrong
It takes a lot to make the end
It takes a lot of smart thinking
But never wrong, but never wrong

Clever, clever is all
But you're never wrong
Clever, clever is all
But you're never wrong
