The Get Up Kids

I didn't take that blow to heart You couldn't tear our home apart You anything you wanted everything I don't have brusies I can show Scars from abuse without a blow You anything you wanted everything

You don't owe anything to me

I didn't take that blow to heart You couldn't tear our home apart You anything you wanted everything

You don't owe anything to me But don't expect me not to live

I ask each year Why am I here Begging you please Remembering I'd rather die than be alone

I didn't take that blow to heart You couldn't tear our home apart Give you anything you wanted everything

You don't owe anything to me But don't expect me not to live

I ask each year Why am I here Begging you please Remembering I'd rather die than be alone
