

The Stain

The Haunted

There is no real way out, no I'm still in here fighting
I've been losing forever, destroying myself in spite
Grind my teeth
Breaking myself
I nurtured a snake
So keep your misery and wellput sympathies
I am not your alibi (I am not the one)
God knows I loved you so
There's nothing left
Here take it all, I'm so disgusted I can't take no more
Keep it all - good fucking riddance
I hate myself just fine alone
I know just how to hold my own
I gave you my all
So keep your misery and wellput sympathies
I am not your alibi (I am not the one)
God knows I loved you so
With everything you said
Every time you lied
Every single step
I knew you'd come around and show me who you are Leave me with the scars
I've been waiting for you
With every single lie
The stains you left behind
I'll never close my eyes again
You're nothing
I am not your alibi
God knows I loved you so
There's nothing...
