

A Ghost You Can't Forget

The Heavy

Don't be mean to me in my lifetime
Cause I'm the type that go for days
Play pretty wife for the rest of your life
[?] with your own regrets
Seize to dismiss your karma
My own mission break
Vengeance, you'll see
We'll be forced, you can believe
Bestowed upon you on the brain
And ah stop you're making me look like a fool
I'll show your blood definition of cool

When you don't want me
(I'll be waiting)
When you don't need me
(I'll be there)
When you close your eyes at night you'll get
A ghost you can't forget

Now I can try and show a little sympathy
And I can try to go in time
But it's so good to see you drowning in your misery
Gives me such a thrill to avenge your crime
And ah stop you're making me look like a zombie in my head-head-head-head-head
I'll wipe that look off your face when I'm, when I'm messing on with your death death

When you don't want me
(I'll be waiting)
When you don't need me
(I'll be there)
When you close your eyes at night you'll get
A ghost you can't forget

When you don't want me
(I'll be waiting)
When you don't need me
(I'll be there)
When you go so high at night you'll get
A ghost you can't forget

When you don't want me
(I'll be waiting)
When you don't need me
(I'll be there)
When you close your eyes at night you'll get
A ghost you can't forget

When you don't want me
(I'll be waiting)
When you don't need me
(I'll be there)
When you close your eyes at night you'll get
A ghost you can't forget
