The Modern World

This is the modern world This is the modern world

What kind of fool do you think I am? To think I know nothing of the modern world All my life it's been the same I've learnt to live by hate and pain It's my inspiration drive

I've learnt more than you'll ever know Even at school I felt quite sure That one day I would be on top Another dot upon the map The teachers who said I'd be nothing

This is the modern world that I've learnt about This is the modern world we don't need no one To tell us what's right or wrong This is the modern world

Say what you like 'cause I don't care I know where I am and going to It's somewhere I won't preview Don't have to explain myself to you I don't give two fucks about your review

This is the modern world that I've learnt about This is the modern world we don't need no one To tell us what's right or wrong

Modern word, this is, this is, this is This is, this is, this is, this is Hey, we don't need no one To tell us what's right or wrong
