

Too Much To Lose

The Kentucky Headhunters

I get tears on my pillow
When I get you on my mind
And theres no one to see me when I cry
No one knows how I miss you
When I reach out to kiss you
And theres no one to whisper good nite
Are you lonely, are you lonely,
Just like me eee eee eee
Cant you see eee eee
No one will love you the way that I love you
So won't you come back
Because your too much, too much to loose ooouse

Do you think theres a chance
To renew, old romance
Why wont you please
Bring your sweet love home to me
Cause I've searched the past forever
And I know there will never be another
Who will set my soul free

Are you lonely, are you lonely,
Just like me eee eee eee
Cant you see eee eee
No one will love you the way that I love you
So why wont you come back
Because your too much, too much to loose ooouse
