

The Last Goodbye

The Kills

It's the last goodbye, I swear
I can't rely on a dime-a-day love
That don't go anywhere

I learn to cry for someone else
I can't get by on an odds and ends love
That don't ever match up

I heard all you said
And I took it to heart

I won't forget, I swear
I have no regrets
For the past is behind me
Tomorrow reminds me just where

I can't quite see the end
How can I rely on my heart if I break it
With my own two hands

I heard all you said
And I love you to death
I heard all you said
Don't say anything

It's the last goodbye I swear
I can't survive on a half-hearted love
That will never be whole
