

Radiating Love

The Knack

step out of your shoes and dive in the water is nice here please tell me what you've got to lose jump out of your skin we're dancing and nothing is rhyming but it's so easy when you choose take your time it'll be clear it'll be there blow your mind i'll be everything any would ever dream of

radiating love

climb out of your shell it's alright 'cause everyone's buzzing come up and see what's going on get up and get out get with it 'cause everything's humming just spinning round and round and round this is your picture postcard your grand illusion the perfect present from above

radiating love
