

Don't Walk On By

The Lightning Seeds

If all the moments of your life
Flash before your eyes
Would you laugh or would you cry?
Is it a losing game?
There's no one else to blame
You better think again
And if you need a friend

Don't walk on by
I know you're sad, I know
But there's bluer skies
All your life
You walk on by
Open up your eyes
Storms may disappear with the songs of sorrow

If your guardian angel smiles
What do you require?
Your hearts desire
Someone to share the storm
Catch you if you fall
You better think again
And if you need a friend

Don't walk on by
I know you're sad, I know
But there's bluer skies
All your life
You walk on by
Open up your eyes
Storms may disappear with the songs of sorrow

You better think again
And if you need a friend

Don't walk on by
I know you're sad, I know
But there's bluer skies
All your life
You walk on by
Open up your eyes
Storms may disappear with the songs of sorrow

Don't walk on by
Don't walk on by (I know you're sad I know) but there's bluer skies (don't walk on by)
All your life
Don't walk on by (all your life)
