

On a Day Like This

The Lightning Seeds

Maybe it's me
Maybe it's just today
I'm standing outside in the falling rain
Suddenly the darkest clouds are blown away
Is this my life?
Or a game I play?
It takes me over
It makes me feel like life's worthwhile
It makes me smile
Something stole my breath away

Maybe it's you
Maybe it's everywhere
I turn around
It's always there
Even in the darkest night I see the stars
Yesterday's gone
Let's make tomorrow ours
Something stole my breath away

It takes me over
It makes me feel like life's worthwhile
It makes me smile

On a day like this
All the world it feels so fine
If there's a price to pay
I'll pay it every time

It makes me feel like love's worthwhile
It makes me smile

I'm hoping to say
It's all turned out okay
I'm hoping to say
It's all turned out okay
