

Enemy Of Time (Demo)

The Living End

ohhhh

The rosy life you dream of
Is there within our hand
Sometimes things don't go our way
Not quite as we planned

So take another photograph
The portrait of the mind
And think about the ones you love
And those you left behind
The hill is getting steeper
And harder still to climb
But we won't surrender
To the enemy of time

The road that you have travelled
And all that you have seen
Amounts to nothing
If you don't know what it means

Take another photograph
Portrait of the mind
And think about the ones you love
And those you left behind
The hill is getting steeper
And harder still to climb
But we won't surrender
To the enemy of time

The rosy life you dream of
Is there within our hand
Sometimes things don't go our way
Not quite as we planned

Take another photograph
Portrait of the mind
And think about the ones you love
And those you left behind
The hill is getting steeper
And harder still to climb
But we won't surrender
To the enemy of time

Time
Time

Ohhhh
