

Finders Keepers Losers Weepers

The Marvelettes

I found the love of a wonderful boy
You lost that sweet bundle of joy
Since you heard i have his love and kisses
Now his love you say you've been missin'
But finders keepers, losers weepers
Finders keepers, losers weepers
Hey hey hey hey, hey hey hey hey

When i found him, he was hurt and sad
I lift him up and made him glad
Now that i have taken your place
Lonely tears have left it's trace
But finders keepers, losers weepers
Finders keepers, losers weepers
Hey hey hey hey, hey hey hey hey

Every word he speaks to me
They're such sweet things to me
Now you're asking me to let him go
'cause your heart can't take it no more
But finders keepers, losers weepers
Finders keepers, losers weepers
Hey hey hey hey, hey hey hey hey

Finders keepers, losers weepers
You had his love and you couldn't keep it
